Section B: Individual vs. Organizational Actions

1. The first item to be determined by the VP, as well as by the hearing board during a hearing, is whether an infraction was committed by an organization or by individuals within that organization. The criteria for determining whether an action is an individual or organizational activity are as follows:
 - a. The chapter pays for any part of the event through the chapter account or collection of funds from individual members
 - b. The event is advertised by associated with the chapter in any way.
 - c. The chapter advisor or any of the executive officers of the chapter were aware of the event before or during and did not prohibit it from taking place. In addition, they did not take steps to ensure that the activity in question was in compliance with the applicable University policies, federal, state, and local laws and ordinances, Greek Community Standards, or bylaws.
 - d. The incident involves is actively or passively endorsed by other members of the chapter.
 - e. The event is commonly known on campus to be a chapter sponsored activity.
 - f. The infraction, though individual, occurs so often and is so widespread that it represents a culture of condoned or accepted misconduct within the organization. In the event that the culture within the organization has deteriorated to such a point, it becomes the responsibility of the Greek Conduct Board to promote community standards in that organization.
